

A Proclamation

FULL FINANCIAL INCLUSION FOR DISABLED PERSONS DAY

November 14, 2019

WHEREAS, the Americans with Disabilities Act was passed almost 30 years ago, and yet we still have much work to do to create truly equitable access for people with disabilities; and,

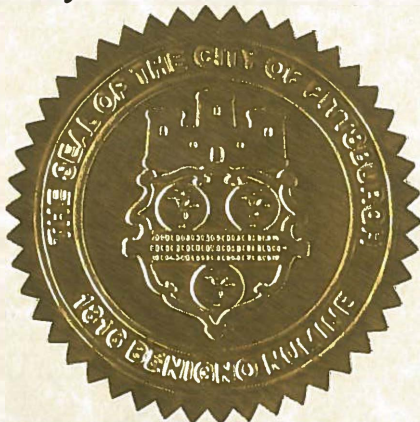

WHEREAS, the National Disability Institute has been working through pioneering research, advocacy, policy development, training and technical assistance to build a better financial future for people with disabilities and their families since 2005; and,

WHEREAS, the National Disability Institute has brought their 2019 Financial Inclusion Summit to Pittsburgh allowing our community to host and learn from a diverse group of experts; and,

WHEREAS, Pittsburgh desires to be a place where people with disabilities can fully participate in our economy both to their direct benefit, and to the benefit of our entire community; and,

WHEREAS, the Pittsburgh community is eminently grateful for the help and guidance provided by the National Disability Institute in helping us learn how to remove barriers to full participation in our economy that people with disabilities face.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that I William Peduto, Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh do hereby declare November 14, 2019 as “Full Financial Inclusion for Disabled Persons Day” here in our most livable City of Pittsburgh.
